SERVICE AGREEMENT

The following agreement is a service contract between the undersigned client and Danis Communications Inc/Xtel, hereafter known as the service provider

The customer agrees not to bring about use of the name, marks, promotions or logos of the service provider, or any franchise or agent from a service provider site or any other internet access point, link or other media and acknowledges that such actions are a direct violation of copyright and /or liable law. All links and references to the above use of the service provider to occur only through written permission from the service provider Board of Directors.

The undersigned service taker understands and agrees that all fees paid for services are non-refundable and that 30 days prior written notice must be given for cancellation or any billing adjustment. E-mail, fax or electronically conveyed instructions regarding account modifications or cancellations cannot be accepted. Please contact the Accounts Manager to arrange such changes. The undersigned service taker agrees that should he/she do so the service provider reserves the right to terminate the service without refund of any unused service for any reason. The service taker agrees to responsibility for and assumes liability for any damage incurred through use of this service or his/ her activities in its use.

The undersigned agrees that he/ she has read this agreement and agrees to it as a contract between himself/ herself and the service provider, agrees to the above terms and promises to pay on demand for any services contracted from the date signed below including those services deemed as pay-per-use. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the service provider, it's staff and officers for any liability in connection with this service. The customer waves any claim against the service provider for service delivery and performance outside of the service provider's immediate domain. This service may not be resold in part or in whole.

The service provider reserves the unconditional right to terminate the account of any service taker in violation of the above or who fails to pay for service within fifteen (15) days of billing. The service provider agrees to exchange for it's billing fee twenty four (24) hour access to the services as contracted with the only exceptions caused by fire, theft, power or telephone line failure where termination exceeds built in fail-safes within the service provider's network. The undersigned parties have read, understood and agreed to all the above.
